Yeah.
I'm sorry.
If you've come to talk to me in person, it's gotta be important, right?
... well, what is it?
Huh?
It's not exactly good news

You weren't selected for the regulars.
You... you mean for Galaxy Standard?
Yeah. Regulars for the next incarnation of Galaxy Standard.

You will graduate along with our third-years.
Because of this, the next Gal-Sta live will be your last.
You didn't talk to me about this at all ... well, I had a hunch.
So, it's just decided like this? You just went ahead with it like this?
That's right.

turn Listen.
Kanoe.
... whatever
It doesn't matter.
I'm done with being an idol anyway
You're just making it convenient for yourself

What paths to choose, and what paths
that would be better left not taken.

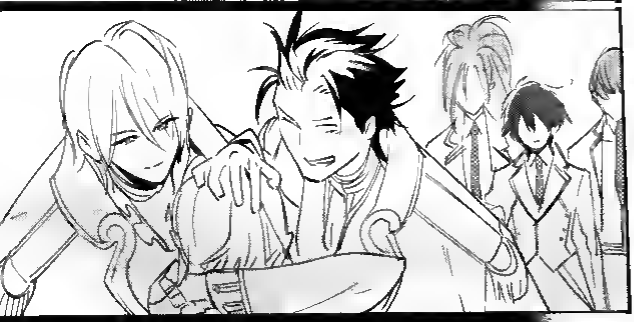
It's obvious what needs to be done to reach our goal, and I will do it in the most straightforward way.



However, we are only human.

If we can imagine what others are feeling, then we can lend them a listening ear.

Humans have emotions too.

translated by eon @ itsukushima skyspell.org

I do not wish to fulfil every single person's dreams.

It is not that I 'cannot'.

- No.

Even so, I cannot take into account and fulfil every single person's dreams.

Even so, the thoughts and dreams that I cannot help fulfil will weigh me down like shackles.
But, it doesnt matter.

I will accept this burden - and move forward while looking ahead.

I have a goal, I have a dream.

To fulfil this dream is a mission given to me by those who are important to me.

I will not doubt my own thoughts.

Neither will I underestimate it.

Their emotions, their feelings, they empower me and give me the heart to strive on.

You're in the way.
KICK
Nyehehe! I practiced this secret technique.
The skill of Chiyomatsu's Tear-inducing Requiem!!
You gotta pick up my corpse....
are you guys still practicing?
we're not dead!!
That's quite a few corpses to pick up, then.
Good work, everybody!
I don't think we are permitted to die in this room.
If I die, I will be free...
I'm pooped, nya.....

ahaha...
So are you still against it or not?
beautiful...
brain has refused to continue thinking
Well, it does sound kind of fitting, now that I think about it...
There won't be another unit like us again.
Even so, it will carry our dreams.
Isn't 'beautiful' a little too abstract, though?
Rei-kun, you really do like it, nya?
So, we need something that will touch the hearts of others.
